THE NEW TARIFF.

The Bill Will Be Introduced to Congress in November and Will Probably Become a Law in March.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Intruous Wilson, in response to a question as to the progress being made on the new tariff bill, said Monday afternoon: "We are making very fair progress, although we have not got so far as to consider physiology. It may not be possible for us to complete the bill by November 1, but I hope that if it is not finished then it will be within a very few days thereafter." Other members of the committee who were seen Monday were even more confident of the early completion of the measure, in which so much interest is felt. They agreed in the belief that it would be ready to submit the consideration of the full committee somewhere between the 1st and 10th of next month, and that it would be referred to the house and placed on the calendar by the 20th of next month.

If this program is carried out, it will be possible for the house to conclude consideration of the bill and send it over to the committee of the senate before the Christmas holidays. The probabilities are that the measure will become a law during the latter part of February or early in March next.

"Nothing can be said as to the revenue lines upon which the bill is to be drawn," said a member of the committee Monday. "As the matter now stands, without troubling any of the items of the present law, we are contented by a deficit of at least fifty million dollars. The probabilities are that the changes we will make in the schedules will still further increase that amount."

Add to that the new articles to be placed on the free list and which thus lose their revenue-producing power, and when we have found out the total we shall know whether it will be necessary to place a tax on sugar or incomes or an increased tax on beer and spirits. The bill will be introduced to the committee of the senate on the 1st of December, and the committee will be asked to accept the new articles as closely as possible. I think it is highly probable that wood will be placed on the free list and the sugar bounty repealed, and each two things will about balance each other."

To Be Married.

On next Wednesday at noon Mr. John Crutcher, of this place, will be married to Miss Rose Cullen, a handsome young lady from the upper part of this county. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents (Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Upde) which is the George Burges place. They will come to Louisa at noon and go to house keeping. Mr. Crutcher has a house already furnished on the east side of Water street, below Perry.

Well Well!

Mr. George Reeder's many friends have been greeting him with broad smiles for the past two days, and each and every one has received a great big hearty one in return. In fact, nothing but a genuine, wholehearted smile has found a place on his countenance since Wednesday morning, when the news came that a daughter was born to Mrs. Reeder on the 7th in Menden, Ohio, where she has been visiting her parents for several weeks. Mr. Reeder will hasten to that place as soon as possible, which will probably be a week or two.

This is their first-born. The pleasing intelligence came in the nature of a surprise to their many friends in Louisa. The News extends greeting to the fair stranger, with the hope that she may inherit the graces of body and mind which distinguish her parents, and that she may live long and prosper.

Sullivan-Borders.

The wedding of Miss Nora K. Borders and Mr. Henry C. Sullivan was an elegant affair. It occurred at the South Methodist Church in Louisa last Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock. This hour was selected in order that they might take the train passing a few minutes later.

Notwithstanding the early hour, the guests began to arrive half an hour before the appointed time, and when the wedding party arrived it found the house well filled.

The bride is truly a worthy and attractive young lady, daughter of Mr. A. P. Borders, one of our best citizens. She was endowed by nature with an enviable share of the graces, and these have been so developed and finished by education and culture that she has grown into a charming womanhood. The man she has chosen for her husband comes from one of the oldest and most prominent families of northeastern Kentucky. He is a young lawyer of acknowledged ability with bright prospects for the future. The News offers congratulations.

In order that my position may not be misunderstood as regards the recent controversy in which the name of L. K. Vinson was involved I will state I knew absolutely nothing about it and had no connection whatever with it. The whole thing occurred during my absence of ten days, and was without my knowledge or consent. I have never even seen the article which prompted the communication published in the News. I am not in any way responsible for the article or for its publication.

M. E. CONLEY.

To Be Married.

On next Wednesday at noon Mr. John Crutcher, of this place, will be married to Miss Rose Cullen, a handsome young lady from the upper part of this county. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents (Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Upde) which is the George Burges place. They will come to Louisa at noon and go to house keeping. Mr. Crutcher has a house already furnished on the east side of Water street, below Perry.

Well Well!

Mr. George Reeder's many friends have been greeting him with broad smiles for the past two days, and each and every one has received a great big hearty one in return. In fact, nothing but a genuine, wholehearted smile has found a place on his countenance since Wednesday morning, when the news came that a daughter was born to Mrs. Reeder on the 7th in Menden, Ohio, where she has been visiting her parents for several weeks. Mr. Reeder will hasten to that place as soon as possible, which will probably be a week or two.

Notice to Tax Payers of Lawrence County.

I will proceed to collect the tax for 1893 by posting notices of the days and places my deputies will be in each district to receive the tax of the several districts in this county. This notice is all the demand the law imposes on me to make. I am sorry to have to push the matter so rapidly, but under the heavy penalties of the law I will, after notice given, proceed to levy and sell. My friends, you should not blame me as I did not impose these taxes on you, and I am compelled to do this to save myself and friends.

Yours Respectfully,

A. J. WILSON,

SCARLET FEVER.

It was reported for several days that Wm. Remmels's young child had scarlet fever, but the truth of the report was denied yesterday, the claim being made that it was only a case of "hives."

LATER:—The health officer pronounces the case scarlet fever, beyond doubt. Every effort should be used to prevent an epidemic.

PERIODIC FEVER.

The bride was married in a rich travelling costume of blue brocade, the ushers carried a small silver bell—"wedding bell"—and at the conclusion of the ceremony, and during the march out of the church, these were lightly jingled.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan were driven to the depot and boarded the train a few minutes afterward. Most of the guests went to the train to see them off and wish them well. The burial took place Sunday afternoon near Fort Gay, the former home of the family. Rev. Cox conducted the ceremony. The deceased was twenty-one years old, a good Christian lady, member of the Baptist church. The family have much sympathy in their bereavement.
